Saturday the certificat of deposit shall be forwarded by Dawson & Shouse now sent by you if I know exactly the amount of your Bill ordered by Capt Henry

In haste yours respectfully

Dinsmore & Hyde

11th October 1824

The foregoing was written under an impression that Captain Harris would take it to you, but he said you would soon serve it & sent by Dawson on Saturday which we shall do together with all the articles written for in your letter by Captain Henry & was now Inclose a certificate of deposit to your credit in the Bank of Maryland of Four Hundred thirty five Dollars on Eighty three cents being the nett proceeds of your wheat after deducting Charges & Bills as rendered herewith The sale parcels of wheat over in the quantity taken and accepted for the value of $9.04 cts, but the Captain says he only returns each shipper the quantities accepted for when first taken in, this you will be able to settle with the owner of the boat in your own way.
