Severn January 16th 1833.

Sir

I received a letter from you last fall about some rails, which I answered immediately, but it has been so long since that I have forgotten the particulars. I think you wrote for two thousand rails for Mr Cook which I informed you in my letter I could send to him in May, I also ~~wrote to~~ requested you to let me know if you could sell me fifty barrels of corn next spring and what would be the lowest you would deliver it at the water for, to which I requested an immediate answer, and as I have not heard from you ~~have~~ I concluded that you never received my letter, If the gentlemen still wants the rails I can supply him at the time before mentioned, please answer this as soon as convenient, you will direct your letter to Brotherton X roads A. A. County M, D,

Very respectfully Yr Most Obt. Servt.

Col. John Tilghman
