Now I am very enthusiastic 189 in trying to build up this asso., but I suppose we must go along slowly. I have written the Presdt of the Va. Asso. again and asked him to appoint a Committee to confer with a similar Committee from our Asso. and arrange upon terms and conditions upon which we can unite the two Assos.
I never get tired working to keep up the interest among our members and am always glad to be told when I make a mistake, in the way you did it in your letter. I wish I could have your Council oftener. In future I shall hope to have you always at our Board meetings
