

may be spared in this old town.
The ginger cake was very nice. I must have the recipe when you have time; - it was so crisp - savages got too - indeed everything was - and we served many thanks for the kind thought for us - it was most unexpected - I am wanting to hear of Jennie Peyton.
You know she has gone to California to be with Emma for a month. He is there - engineering - she was so glad to go - do you - dear Annie - ever hear anything of Mr & Mrs Jence. I have not for a long time. Some of the girls from here went over on New years morning for the early communion, to Bishop's stead, then took breakfast with the Bishop, and dined for the usual service - He has a pretty little chapel attached to his house - for four years I have not seen our church in its Xmas dressing - always at home to read to my sister,
