

and am satisfied that you as a business man will see the fairness of it your brother has had credit at my store for 2 years and it is the first payment that he has made me and I am
certainly not willing to apply it to any other than his store &c
and if it is not satisfactory I shall hold no further contention about it but proceed at once to collect by law although I do not want to do it

Yours Respt
