

New York Dec 5 1861

My dear Sir

I am sorry to hear that since I neglected to inquire whether you had paid the debt due the estate of the right for which I had what was the reason for getting a judgment.

It seems to me you are authorized to pay it out the proceeds of the sale which might have done so.

Very truly yours
J. M. Smith

For further information please refer to the

correspondence preceding the same.

Yours truly