

Wford Jay 20, 1871,
Lloyd Tilyman Esq.

Sir,

I short time ago I recd from Mr. C. M. McCrean a letter in reply to a note of mine that he was but one year in arrears of int to 1st Jay 1871, whereas the statement I sent made it 18 mos.

In my reply, I referred him to you as he mentioned yr name in connection with former payments - On Saturday I recd another letter in which he encloses yr check for $100,00 & is entirely silent upon the question of the amt of interest he owes.

I do not send his name among the memo and as you furnished of those who had paid their interest up to Jay 1870, nor in the list you were kind enough to furnish me
