✓ Carriage & Plate for 1863

The tax assessed upon your income for the year ending December 31, 1862, amounting to Two Hundred and seventy nine & 05/100 dollars, has been transmitted to me by the Assessor of the District, and for payment of which, demand is hereby made. If unpaid for thirty days after the 30th day of June last, and for ten days after this demand, five per centum will be added to the amount unpaid; and the amount of said tax, with such addition, together with interest and the costs that may accrue, will become a lien on all the property, rights, and interests from which such income accrued; which lien will be enforced by distraint, if necessary.

Payment may be made to Jos W Simpson at _____

No. 138
