

Balto Nov 12th 1861
Lloyd H. Hays Esq

Dear Sir

Yours of 9th came to hand In my case the P^y did know or was presumed to have known that deft was in Md on his accusin as he wrote to him that he was coming into this state. This however makes no or little difference as the Judge instructed the jury that if the def^t was in this state in an open and unconcealed manner for a sufficient time to enable the P^y by offering diligence to have arrested him that the statute he can. To sum I hope this may