

My dear Sir

As I was never more hurried I must get off to day wth a few lines. The boat yesterday took all Mr Lloyd's Rope & 30 of the twine directed for him to the fore of Porty - also your blue Sugar & 9 Dr I could not contrive any packages for the gauge or Callicoes; I am indeed very sorry the latter cannot be done in time for the Ball. Tell the ladies I even keep in disappointment for the Gent^l who will be in sufficient danger without it. Your Order of 10 Morris is of the best kind because I shall take just what the goods come to, & only when I want it. I have got a good pair of new cards for Miss Lloyd. I am very particularly oblig
