

My dear Sir

Dec 15th 79

It is not all surprising that a number of these snaps should want back this day after we have been too full of it. I will not be so piggish to supply your wants. I hear but of any I am worth attention of. I will try to secure it. I will keep a good look out for it. The Angles.
This 6th I never heard a title of the French Books before you are lost; the letter in which you ordered them must have miscarried. If it comes to hand I will get them, but you had best repeat what you have written about them.
