Died on the 19th. in Chester-Town Kent-county, the honorable James Tilghman - late Chief Justice of this District, and one of the Judges of the Court of Appeals, in this state -

Happy would it be if on this occasion, the people of Maryland had only to mingle sympathies with those of the relatives - but they must do more - they must bewail the loss of a good citizen, of unimpeachable manners and reputation - they must lament the death of a man, who has been eminently useful in various public stations - they are deprived of the illustrious example of a learned, a rational, and a pious Christian - they must mourn the bereavement of a Chief Judicial Magistrate in the discharge of official duties was luminous and
