My dear Sir,

I feel no impropriety in approaching you directly on the subject of this, when your cooperation with me is only required so far as you shall deem that the public interest ~~shall~~ will be promoted.

When I last ^{saw} you at Annapolis, I was asked by the members of the Legislature, who had served with me, if I would affirm the revision of the laws of this State, I answered, that so long as Judge Buehman's name remained connected with that subject, that from delicacy, toward him, I would not consent that my name should be presented. At the last session, you authorized some individual to be selected charged with that duty. You served with me in the Legislature. My public life has passed in
