

interests dividends or proceeds of the said investments - Original and accumulations - for the support of herself and her children; and upon the death of my said Daughter, my said Trustees shall thereafter pay to the child or children of my said Daughter, living at the time of her death, such portion of said interest dividends or proceeds as in their sole discretion may be proper for the maintenance and education of such child or children, until such child or children (respectively if more than one) shall attain the age of twenty one years; and if there be but one child that shall live to attain the age of twenty one years, then that child shall receive the sums so invested and re-invested and if there be more than one child living at the death of my said Daughter then my Trustees shall pay to the one first arriving at the age of twenty one an aliquot portion of said investment and reinvestments and to the others respectively an aliquot portion as each shall attain the age of twenty one; and if there be more children than one living at the death of my said daughter and any of them should die under the age of twenty one then the portion which would have been due to such deceased child, if he or she had attained the age of