

My dear Sir

Your letter has just got to hand in Doctors Shop, and I am writing you one of his pens I am worn of his work: being paper to save time.

I find on settling your account a Balance due you of about £260 taking in all your own Good Money.
When you give your order on Mr. Morris, please to allow for this - I will if possible secure the Sign for you. Should they ask more, or omit in the £100 piece, what will you have done. I don't know that they will but mention it for your should have been by the
