

was very much pleased; tells me of having Edward in his office with him. That is an excellent plan. It will teach him attention and a knowledge of business. When all the affairs of your late office are closed, shall be pleased of Caleb and George also being engaged.

Mr. Lambdin goes . . . (torn off with seal - Copyist) . . his gig, and would be pleased, he says, with a homebound cargo; suppose our sister Em takes a trip - we should be delighted.

We have had a great cattle show and Fair, a variety of excellent stock, an elegant assortment of domestics, such as hearth rugs, carpets, flannels, &c, &c, also butter &c - and very good Dame got a premium with a dashing complement in the report, from Judge Wright, for her cordial - we did send on a paper, for you to see all. - Remember us all affectionately to all.

Yrs. mo. truly

J. M. G. EMORY

COPY