Letter from Joseph E. Johnston (afterwards General) to Uncle John dated ~~Baltimore Nov 20 1835~~ in ~~which~~ Washington June 16 1838

in which he says:

I shall never think a winter mis-spent that gained me you for a friend. You do yourself great injustice however, in thinking that you owe anything to me.
You may mix with men anywhere with confidence that you meet them on equal terms. You require no Mentor.

Official Letter from J. E. Johnston to J. R. Emory, Oct 19 1837 offering him appointment as Assistant to Commission for distributing provisions to inhabitants of Florida.
