

one bearing the name, a son of the old Sheriff, living & he of not much prominence. The Cross Streets, in Smyrna, known respectively as Main & Commerce, is the identical spot known originally as Duck Creek Cross Roads. The John Ferguson of Duck Creek Cross Roads was doubtless a relative of your ancestor. You were born in what was originally known as Duck Creek Cross Roads.

In regard to Munderkill neck, it is bounded on the South by Munderkill Creek; on the North by St. Jones' Creek; on the East by Delaware Bay & on the West by the County Road leading from Frederica to Dover. The sections called necks sometimes ~~take~~ take their names from the Creeks bounding them, as Mispillion Munderkill & St. Jones'. That there was originally a numerous family of Emory's in this County seems probable from the number of persons whose Christian name was Emory - as Emory Trazier, Emory Jumph, Emory Marvel, Emory Scotton et al. and generally from the western or Horrest side of the ~~State~~ County.

His great grand father was John Register Emory. In my youthful days I knew
