

nearly finished what I consider a very complete and accurate history.

It has just occurred to me that it might be interesting to other members of the family to include their history and furnish them with a completed copy, with sketches of the early Emory arms and crests, which were granted to some of our early ancestors according to some recent investigation.

I shall be very glad if you are interested to work up in detail to the present time your branch but as I have spent a considerable amount of time and money on this work I can't afford to go very much deeper into it financially so will need some little assistance financially in order to cover actual cost of materials, typewriting, cuts of arms, etc., I should say possibly the sum of twenty dollars would take care of it.

It will be necessary for me to have from you data as to the past two or three generations and any other information which you might have along these lines to enable me to connect up with my earlier notes.

I am

Yours very truly

J. R. Emory

JRE/s