usual accounts give so much trouble. Strange that you should have unearthed the records proving the tie of blood, at this late date. Like you, I am glad of it, as it is far from the forbidden relationship your Grand Mother told you. While John the families were related - My Father & Grandfather were both Thomas, and I think my Grand father had a brother Richard. Colonel Tilghman told me one of the family owned large Ware-houses at Queenstown, you know it was then a Port of Entry - Ernest Selmsley told
