My dear Fred,

Your letters are very refreshing to me, altho' I do not always answer promptly - This is my last day here. I leave this evening, stay to night at Covington, V. Take the C. & O. train to-morrow morning, reaching Baltimore at 9.30. I expect to go to the E. S. on Wednesday, first to Lurline I think my presence there is very necessary - Mrs. Barrow's conduct is simply outrageous - Worse than Ned's - I am sorry to have such an opinion of one whom I once respected - I am glad you & Fannie
