My dear Mrs. Willard:

I am informed by a friend at Easton, Md., that you have the history of the Queen Anne's and Talbot Emorys complete. In 1896-'97, I had some correspondence with Rev. Horace B. Hayden, and Mrs. Lewis Emory (your mother, I believe) on the subject, and furnished them with such data as I then possessed. Since then, I have accumulated a good many notes, clearing up some doubtful points, and am curious to know whether your record agrees with mine. We might, perhaps, be able to help each other if you could conveniently let me have a copy of your memoranda for comparison with mine. I am still at a loss to determine whether your Great grandfather, Charles Emory, was the son or grandson of John Emory who died in 1763. Can you enlighten me as to this?

Very sincerely yours
Frederic Emory.

Mrs. Butler Willard,
Wilkes-Barre.
