

As I did not mention the day I was to leave York in my last letter to you & thinking you may have concluded to return by this route on account of my being here I have written this to say that he need expect to leave here next ~~Thursday~~ the 11th September - I shall remain in Baltimore till either Saturday or Sunday.

I am sorry it is getting warm again & trust I shall not be caught in Baltimore a very hot spell - I have enjoyed the cool weather so much & always feel strong when it is cool - Mother has been extremely unwell the last few days with a return of her cold - The Lady is bright again so she can not keep away far while she is cutting so many bells The Doctor I promised that you met at Bedford is staying in York & came up here with Mr Elliott some evening or two ago. This I did not see him - I do hope to have seen you - I hope my letter has reached you & you will write - direct York if you write at home & you had better direct to Miss Temp's care & you do not write while I sit to Mr St as I must write Mary then - All join in love Aff yours

A. H.
