some drill holes.

The fact that neither Watters or Perry have taken hold of it and so many other people have looked it over, leads me to the conclusion that the Bauxite operators as a whole have turned it down.

As a purchas I would not recommend a price be paid more than three its value as farm land, which would be about $1500.00 per ac

R. T. Emory

April 15-1919