

some drill holes.
The fact that weather or they have taken hold of it and the coming of the people have looked it over. Look over to the conclusion that the people's operators as a whole have turned it down.
As a foreman I would not recommend a price to paid over than three the value as former land, which would be about $1500/100

R. L. Emory

April 15-1919