

nothing in the decrees, - there may be things in the decree that are not taken up in the complaint and if that is the case the Commission could not issue an order against them.

MR. WHITELEY: I have limited the offer of the decree to such acts or matters as are pleaded in the complaint and as are established on the record. If there be provisions of the decree which are not within matters pleaded in the complaint the Commission would have no jurisdiction over them. The complaint is quite broad in that respect and alleges that this respondent has employed and is still employing a scheme, the purpose and/ or effect of which was or is to gain and maintain a monopoly of the aluminum raw material, or aluminum ingots and sheets of secondary aluminum and aluminum fabrication and of aluminum alloy products throughout the United States.

THE EXAMINER: That is in the complaint?

MR. WHITELEY: Yes. Now, if any of the acts committed by the respondent are acts that are enjoined by the decree and are acts that are within the language that I have just read to you they are necessarily unfair methods of competition in commerce. They might not be unfair methods of competition in commerce if committed by a respondent against whom such a decree was not operative.

THE EXAMINER: I just fail to see where it will help me or the Commission. I have no special objection to it
