

THE EXAMINER: A foreign corporation?

THE WITNESS: It is a foreign corporation incorporated under the Laws of British Guiana.

BY MR. WHITELEY:

Q Where were your headquarters while you were the local manager of the Demerara Bauxite Company?

A My headquarters were in Georgetown, British Guiana.

Q Please state just how extensive your exploration of Dutch Guiana for the Republic Manufacturing and Mining Company and of British Guiana for the Demerara Bauxite Company were?

A Mr. Counsel would that not be privileged owing to the fact that I was the engineer in the employ of the Demerara Bauxite Company and the Semarie Company. Should I not have the same privilege that a physician has with his patient: A lawyer with his client?

THE EXAMINER: If you are going to give away any secrets of your employer at that time, Mr. Emery, I will not require you to answer. I don't want you to give away any secrets. If you think you are in the category of a client to an attorney or in the capacity where a confidence was required of you, I would not ask you to answer. I understand from Mr. Whiteley's question that is not his purpose.

THE WITNESS: I would be glad to answer any questions which are general or public information, but I do
