

A Mrs. Hubbard.

MR. SMITH: I object to that.

THE EXAMINER: He can testify to that.

A (continuing) In favor of Mrs. Hubbard, Mr. Humphreys and myself.

THE EXAMINER: Is that the date you recall?

MR. WHITELEY: That is the date, yes, sir, Mr. Examiner.

BY MR. WHITELEY:

Q Please state whether or not this decision was appealed from?

A The decision of the West Indian Court of Appeals was appealed to the Privy Council in London.

MR. SMITH: I object to that as incompetent and irrelevant.

THE EXAMINER: I will let you answer.

MR. SMITH: Please note an exception.

THE EXAMINER: Yes.

The WITNESS: In April of the following year, that was April, 1933.

BY MR. WHITELEY:

Q Do you know of your own knowledge, whether or not the appeal was taken and was prosecuted before the Privy Council in London?

A The appeal was heard before the Privy Council in London
