

approximately a year later, in April or May, 1933.
Q Have you personal knowledge of the hearing before the Privy Council?

A I was present at the hearing before the Privy Council and I was present at the handing down of the decision and they --

MR. SMITH: (Interposing) I object to that.

MR. WHITELY: Don't state the decision.

MR. SMITH: Let that stop there. He was present at the handing down of the decision.

MR. WHITELY: That is satisfactory.

BY MR. WHITELY:

Q Who presided over the Privy Council at this hearing?

MR. SMITH: I object to that as incompetent and irrelevant.

THE EXAMINER: I don't see that that is of any value, Mr. Whitely.

BY MR. WHITELY:

Q How long did the hearing last, Mr. Emery?

A Three or four days.

Q Were you present during that time?

A Yes.

Q During all of the proceedings?

A Yes.

Q Were you represented by a solicitor or a barrister at this proceeding?
