some marked in green, some marked in orange, some marked in yellow and some in blue, the territory so marked being on two sides of a river, the name of which I do not see on this tracing at this moment, and ask you if you prepared or had prepared that map, or if it was prepared under your supervision and direction or instance?

A I don't remember preparing that map, but I remember having a similar map prepared. It is evidently a photostat copy.

Q Do you recognize the map and will you state whether or not it is a correct tracing or representation of certain deposits on said map?

A Can you give me that question again?

(Question repeated by the reporter and the map handed over to counsel for the respondent for examination.)

MR. WHITELEY: I do not see why we should be held up here while the examination of that map is being made by counsel for the respondent.

MR. SMITH: I do not know why not.

MR. WHITELEY: Let me complete my identification of the map, while you examine this map.

Q State whether or not based upon your knowledge of the country and the deposits at that point if it is a correct tracing of certain bauxite deposits owned by the individuals
