

THE EXAMINER: Mr. Reporter, convene the hearing pursuant to luncheon adjournment.

LLOYD T. EMERY,
resumed the stand for further examination

DIRECT EXAMINATION (continued)

BY MR. WHITELEY:

Q When we adjourned for luncheon, Mr. Emery, I believe we were discussing this tracing or map of certain lands adjoining the Demerara ^{River} in British Guiana. I will ask you if you have a similar map in your own records to the one that I now hand you, that is a map similar to the one I know show you, in your possession.

A I have a tracing similar to the tracing from which that was made, which I obtained from the Lands and Mines Department.

Q Of the Colony of British Guiana?

A No, of the Demerara district.

Q And you are satisfied that this is apparently the same tracing?

A That is apparently a print from the same tracing.

MR. WHITELEY: I offer this map in evidence, Mr. Examiner, as Commission's Exhibit No. 759.

THE EXAMINER: Any objections?

MR. SMITH: Is there any particular purpose in
