

I might say that owing to the fact that the parts of the world in which bauxite is found is very large. That there is still a possibility of such a deposit being unearthed. I mean in my opinion it has not all been found.

Q My question was restricted to the known deposits?
A I gather that, but I did not want the statement to be quite as sweeping as it appeared.

Q You meant to restrict your answer to the known deposits?
A Yes.

Q Now do you know whether the United States or the Republic of the water power rights in connection with this matter of going into the production of aluminum?

MR. SMITH: I object to that, first, as generally incompetent and irrelevant, and second, as not included in the complaint.

THE EXAMINER: Go on.
MR. SMITH: Will you allow me an exception.
THE EXAMINER: Yes.

A I was not present at any such negotiations.
MR. SMITH: I submit he could not tell except what he knows of his own knowledge, that would be hearsay.
