

A4 I received a letter from Mr. Hammitt.

Q And I believe you stated you remained with them for an additional month?

A For an additional month.

THE EXAMINER: You were with them then, from February to July?

THE WITNESS: From February 16 to August 30 or 31, the last day of the month, whichever it would be.

BY MR. WHITELEY:

Q I believe I failed to ask you, Mr. Emery, what the result of your conference or interview with Mr. Arthur V. Davis, in the early part of 1925, was. Will you state whether or not you were offered employment by Mr. Davis?

A I don't remember whether I was actually offered employment by Mr. Davis. The interview was more a question of exchange of ideas.

Q Was there any discussion as to salary or anything of that sort?

A I cannot remember at this time the details about the discussion at that point. There must have been some mention of salary or we would not discuss the problem of being employed.

Q How did you happen to call upon him?

A At the suggestion of Mr. Uihlein, Mr. Joseph Uihlein.

Q And was that after Mr. Uihlein had sold his interest in
