

British Guiana or Dutch Guiana or anywhere else I could obtain ore.

Q You were under salary to the Uhlstein's then?

A I was on a retainer.

Q And they also paid your expenses.

A They also paid my expenses.

Q Then you had a little private arrangement with Mr.

Humphreys that he would give you expense money too?

A It was not a private arrangement, it was reported to

Mr. Uhlstein on my return home to the States.

Q Mr. Uhlstein did not know it when you were not in the country?

A When I was in British Guiana on that trip I didn't communicate with Mr. Uhlstein.

Q How much was this expense money you were to get?

A I don't remember of the present time.

Q You know how much it cost to go to Venezuela?

A Or to British Guiana.

Q British Guiana I mean.

A It depends on how long you stay and what you do while you are there, and you can spend one thousand dollars, two thousand dollars or twenty-five hundred dollars.

Q This so-called expense money was to come out of this six-thousand dollar profit that Humphreys was making on it?

A As I recall the correspondence, I believe it was.
