

Q And how much were you to get in dollars and cents?

A I don't know the exact amount, I think I was to render a budget.

Q Were you limited to one thousand dollars?

A I don't remember the upset price.

Q Was it about one thousand dollars?

A I can't remember now at the present time.

Q Was it more than five hundred dollars?

A It was more than five hundred.

Q And was it seven hundred and fifty dollars?

A I don't remember the additional amount.

Q All you know it was more than five hundred dollars?

A More than five hundred dollars.

Q Well, why should you be getting expense money out of this deal when your employers were already paying your expenses.

A Is there any reason why I should not return the money to my employers as compensation after a fruitless trip?

Q Wasn't that really curious for you to be demanding expense money of your employers?

A I did not consider it curious at all, because I reported the full transaction on my return.

Q When did you return?

A In March.
