

Woolford.

A A barrister named Woolford. I think his name was Justice

Q Did he represent you?

A P. M. Brown.

Q Who was the others?

A Various.

Q Was there any other counsel?

A Francis Diaz.

Q Who was your counsel?

A That is right.

them, therefore he could not buy his client's property.

her lawyer, there was a confidential relationship between at one time having employed Mr. Humphreys at one time as litigation started, that is to say, because Mrs. Hubbard things like that. Anyhow on that theory you had this

Q I don't think we ought to be at cross-purposes on plain

A I don't remember the exact date of the advice.

that won't hurt you.

Q You needn't be afraid to be linked up with an attorney.

BY MR. SMITH:

said.

THE EXAMINER: Your attorney, I believe you

Q Who advised you?

A That is what I was advised.

Q That is what your counsel said?