

A I Remember I was on time and Mr. Davis kept me waiting twelve?

Q You can remember so accurately it was five minutes to

A I can't remember conversations running back that far.

did you say?

Q On well, say you both said "Good Afternoon", when what the appointment was for twelve o'clock.

A Well I think it was "Good afternoon", because I think

Q "Good morning", and he said "Good morning" to you?

A I gave him the usual greeting.

you walked in his office?

did you say "Good morning, Mr. Davis"? Is that the way

Q When you went into Mr. Davis' office that morning, that was my answer to the counsel for the other side.

utes; I can't recall the conversation at the present time;

A We discussed the matter for some thirty or forty min-

Q And what did you say to him?

A 1925.

Q In 1925?

was late in January or very early in February.

A I don't remember the exact date, but I presume it

Q When?

A I saw him in his office in New York.

Q Well where did you see Mr. Davis?

A It was.
