

in their employ, or just what the status of the situation was.

Q Would you liked to have continued in the employ if you could receive proper salary?

A I brought up the point with Mr. Davis, but being in the service of the company I would probably be thrown in contact with men that it would not be agreeable to meet, or for me or they to be in contact with, and that was the point we discussed at great length.

Q You remember that clearly don't you?

A I remember that particular phase of the situation.

Q And you don't remember whether you in substance asked for employment?

A I don't remember making the request.

Q Did you want to leave the company?

A I don't remember whether I wanted to or not.

Q Well, when you brought up the question of your continued employment with the Republic Carbon Company what did Mr. Davis say in effect?

A I don't remember his words; I don't remember he gave me any definite information.

Q How long was this interview?

A Thirty or forty minutes.

Q And then you left the office?

A Yes.
