

13th, 1925, and if that is not correct we will give the witness an opportunity to correct it.

A I know it was sometime between February 15th and February 1st.

MR. SMITH: Look it up and if you desire to correct it and send a letter to Mr. Whiteley and send a copy to me.

MR. WHITELEY: It may be understood that if I do not hear from Mr. Henry that February 13th is the correct date.

THE WITNESS: All right.

MR. SMITH: We do not wish to in any way entrap

you into any wrong date and you are quite at liberty to look at the letter. It is my understanding that this is the right date, February 13th, 1925, but I may be mistaken.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q Mr. Henry, I have jumped around here trying to cover all these points more or less at random, you spoke of some negotiations for the Christiansburg Banknote deposit in British Guiana, didn't you?

A I spoke several times of negotiations.

Q Well, in fact that these deposits are not even at this time owned by the Demerara Banknote Company, don't you?

A I know they were not owned by the Demerara Banknote Company
