

Q Who are they?

A I can't name them specifically; I cannot name the subsidiaries that own them, but I believe the subsidiaries are owned by the Aluminum Company of America.

Q That is to say that all of the commercially available bauxite in Dalmatia is owned by a subsidiary of the Aluminum Company of America?

A Not all, but by various companies interested in the production of it.

Q How much owned by the Aluminum Company of America?

A I have not those figures.

Q How many open mines are there in Dalmatia where bauxite is being worked?

A I know there are several.

Q How many?

A I cannot exactly answer that.

Q Where are they?

A Along the Adriatic.

Q That is a great big ocean, the Adriatic?

A Bauxite deposits extend along the Adriatic from the upper end down to the lower end, not continually, but there are bauxite deposits.

Q And all of these are owned by metal producers?

A I should say the ones that are of any value.

Q There are ones there that are not owned by metal pro-
