The 3⁰⁰ difference is probably represented by the interest on note of $157.11 due 2/15/12 - the amt of note $100⁰⁰ Int 3⁰⁰ which was renewed 2/15/12 but interest was not paid.

In keeping your account I keep two separate accounts - One of the principals of notes and the other of the interest as it falls due - I credit you with any interest paid and carry the balance along for you. Instead of adding the interest to the principal of future renewed notes I had rather carry it along for you on open A/c
