February 5, 1915.

Dear Ed:

In your letter of the 23rd inst you say you expect to be in Philadelphia about February 8th. I find that I am extremely busy just at present, and if it would be convenient to you I would be very glad to see you on Sunday afternoon and Sunday evening. You could spend Sunday night with me in West Philadelphia.

On receipt of this letter, will you kindly wire me if you can come on Sunday? If I don't hear from you I will know that you will be here some time on Monday. Address wire, St. Elmo Club, 3453 Woodland Avenue, Phila.

Sincerely,

LTE/D
