

May 4, 1910.

Mr. E. B. Emory, Jr.,

c/o Butterick Pub. Co.,

Spring & Macdonald Sts.,

New York City.

Dear Sir:

I have just received the enclosed invitation which I am forwarding to you, as it seems to be a family affair.

A card to the reception was also received, and as I have to answer it, I will wait a week, and unless I hear from you, I will regret your absence from the city.

With best wishes for good business, I am

Yours very truly,

LTD