Dear Ed:

I just got back to the office this morning and have been very much pleased which was the reason I have not written to tell you how very much I enjoyed spending Friday with you in Roanoke.
You certainly are very well liked and have a very attractive disposition. When I got back from my trip I found Uncle Harry had had another attack and he is not quite sick in bed, so I will not be able to talk to him about the millers for a few days. I will, however, get the information from him through the News Daily people at the earliest opportunity.
Mother, I believe, is staying with Anna Davidson in Baltimore, but she is expected here on Monday.
Wishing you the best of success, I am Yours sincerely,

L.T.F.
