Ans.

My dear Lloyd:

Your letter written on the steamship Atlantic was quite a surprise. The method of payment which you mentioned is entirely satisfactory and I trust your trip abroad will prove successful and also a pleasant one. Smyrna is an ancient city I understand and is somewhere near the junction of the Taurus. I understand they keep out at you from beneath the veil and veiled things are always more or less enchanting.

Your stay does not seem to be a long one and by the time spring has come upon us I hope you will be back in God's country. Take good care of yourself and if you have an opportunity while over there, write me telling me about yourself and your environment.

Sincerely your Brother
