

508

January 20, 1913

Mr. Edward B. Rorv,
512 S. Jefferson Street,
Roanoke, Va.

Dear Sir:

I have your letter of the 18th as well as a memorandum from Lloyd to the same effect. Just as soon as we get a check for the account mentioned I will take pleasure in remitting your share.

While I believe we will get paid, and I hope at an early date, yet I want to caution you against counting on the same with too great certainty. The people who owe us the money are out in Ohio and have evidenced a tendency to be a little slow, but we need their money very much and you can count on my using every effort to collect it as soon as possible.

I have picked up a couple of jobs since Lloyd called which will help carry the office along and we still have hopes of making a good thing out of this business. I hope that your plans are progressing favorably and that we will hear great things from Roanoke in the future.

Yours very truly,

H. H. P.