

April 10 1913

Dear Ed:-

I have just received a check for a note which I have been endeavoring to discount for some time past.

I am enclosing you a check for $211.⁴⁰ as that is the amount you mention in your letter. As soon as I get time I will balance up my accounts and send you a check for the remainder.

I am not stopping to do it now as I know you want the money at the earliest possible moment.

Sincerely
Lloyd