

April 10 1813

Dear Sir -
I have just received a check for a note which I have been troubled to account for some time past.
I have nothing open to check for $211.40 as that was the amount you mentioned as your latter bill as I got there I could not pay my account and you the check for the remainder I am not offering to the it now as I have your money the amount of the check is paid.

Yours truly
J. M. Smith