Last fall I advised her not to go to New York, but she said she should do if she stayed in Charleston now it seems she can not live in New York.

I am barely keeping my own head above water and any money I raise means to go just that much more in the hole. You see I still have faith in this proposition being a go. Our first year our total fees amounted to $1300. which barely covered office expenses. Last year they amounted to a little over $2000. gross but I have only gotten enough out of the business to take on & operate not that. If I drop this proposition now it would mean a loss of about $2000.00 which I have invested & being posted as a matter in the bargain.

Now as to the answer. I am perfectly willing to do what I can & I will
