

508
September 9th, 1916.

Dr. H.B. Wilmer,
W. Walnut Lane,
Germantown,
Philadelphia.

Dear Buck:-

I find in balancing up my accounts that the check for $50.00 which was sent you does not quite cover your account. On January, 1913 the account was $45.30. The interest from then amounts to $6.96. I am therefore enclosing a check for $2.26.

Thanking you for your patience, I remain

Yours sincerely,

LTE/S

Encl.